HCS-4521
Multi-User Console Software

The primary window of multi-user console

Functions

If more than one operator is involved, a multi-user console is available for controlling speaking and voting, apart the system application software.

■ Input web address on browser to access multi-user console

■ Scanning QR code to access multi-user console

■ User name, password and authority were created by management system

■ User controls conference in his/her authority

Ordering Information

HCS-4521........Multi-User Conference Control Software